

Crystal LaPoint

Four Romantic Songs

on poetry of Byron and Shelley

Four Romantic Songs

on Poetry of Byron and Shelley

SATB divisi, a cappella

Percy Bysshe Shelley

Crystal LaPoint

1. To —

$\text{♩} = 60$
mp

One word is too of-ten pro-faned For me to pro-fane

5 un poco cresc.
it. One feel-ing too false-ly dis-dained For 9 dim. mf cresc.

thee to dis-dain it; One hope is too like de-

13 dim. mp
thee to dis-dain-it;— spair— For pru-dence to smoth-er, and pit-y from 17 poco rit. e dim. a tempo, mf unis.

thee more dear than that from an-oth-er. I can 21

give not what men call love; But unis.

24

I can give not what men call love; But wilt — thou ac - cept — not The wor - ship the

cresc.

27

heart lifts a - bove And the Heav - ens re - ject — not: The de -

un poco agitato f cresc. ff

unis.

31

sire of the moth for the star, Of the night for the sire — for the star, the night —

35

mor - row, The de - vo - tion to

rit. f mp a tempo

— for the mor - row, —

39

some - thing a - far — from the sphere of our sor - row.

rall. e dim.