

Dayton, Ohio – May 27, 2010

The Lorenz Corporation is proud to announce that Chairman of the Board, Geoffrey R. Lorenz has received the Church Music Publishers Association's highest honor, the Founders Award. He was presented with the honor at their 84th annual Convention in March.

The Founders Award was created in 1985. It is given to Church Music Publishers Association (CMPA) members who lead by example and offer consistent and dedicated service to the organization as well as the music publishing industry as a whole. A rarely presented award, Geoff joins an exclusive group of only eight others who have previously received the honor in the 84 years of the CMPA's existence.

Geoff is a very active member of CMPA and has served as President four times. He continues involvement with the organization and serves on several committees. He was also an integral part of the formation of the Action Fund, a board for which he currently serves as Vice Chairman.

The Lorenz Corporation congratulates Geoff for receiving the CMPA Founders Award as well as for his many other accomplishments and contributions to the music publishing industry.

press release