

All the Leaves are Falling

G.G.

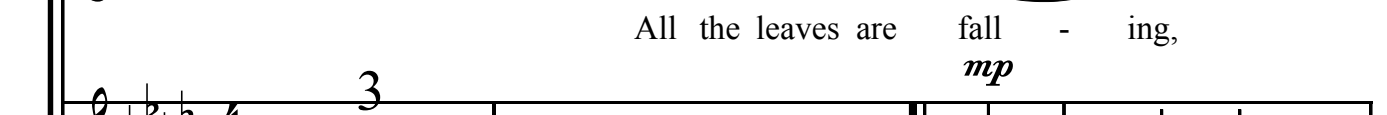

Greg Gilpin

Moody ♩ = ca. 126

1st time: All sing Part I 2nd time: Sing both parts

mp

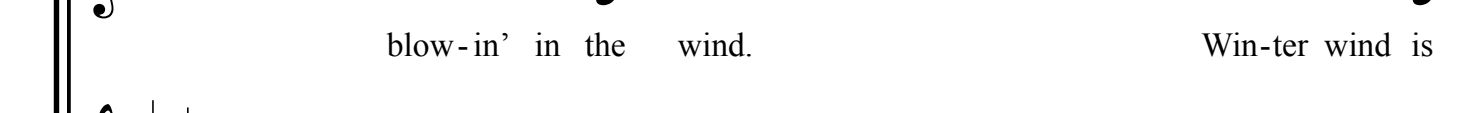

I

II

All the leaves are fall - ing, mp

All the leaves are fall -

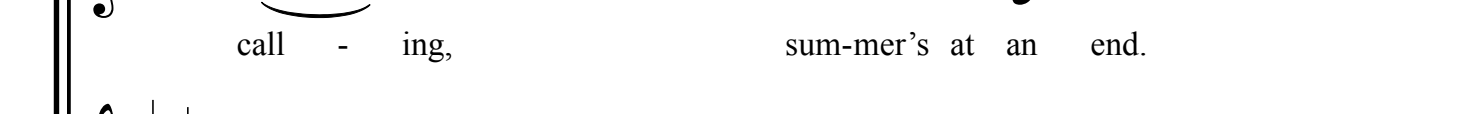

I

II

blow-in' in the wind. Win-ter wind is

- ing, fall - ing, blow - in' in the wind.—

I

II

call - ing, sum-mer's at an end.

Win - ter wind is call - ing, call-ing, sum - mer's at an end.—

I

II

mf The day is get - ting short - er as the mf — The day is get - ting short - er as the 14

I night grows long, — and the har - vest moon has got a

II night grows long, — and the har - vest moon has got a 16

I grin. Re - mem - ber ev - 'ry sea - son has to II grin. Re - mem - ber ev - 'ry sea - son has to 18

I take its turn — and that means sum - mer will come a - gain. —

II take its turn — and that means sum - mer will come a - gain. —

20

I — All the leaves are fall - ing, mp

II — All the leaves are fall -

22

I blow - in' in the wind. All the leaves are p

II - ing, fall - ing, blow - in' in the wind. —

25

I fall - ing, blow-in' in the wind.

p

II All the leaves are fall - ing, fall-ing, blow - in' in the wind.—

28

I All the leaves are fall - ing,

pp

II — All the leaves are fall -

30

I blow - in' in the wind.

II - ing, fall - ing, blow - in' in the wind.—

32

I All the leaves are, all the leaves are,

mf slowing p

II — All the leaves are,

mp slowing

34

I all the leaves are fall - ing.

pp Slowly

II all the leaves are fall - ing.