

Straighten It Out!

Everyone in the orchestra got their instruments mixed up! Help each musician find his or her correct instrument using the clues below. Once you know, draw a line from the musician to his or her instrument.

1. Becky does not play a brass or percussion instrument.
2. Neither of the girls plays a string instrument.
3. Sam's instrument is one of the lowest-pitched instruments in the orchestra.
4. Lindsey's instrument does not have a mouthpiece.
5. John's instrument is held under the chin when played.

Jessica is a very busy girl! She plays the trumpet and piano, and is a member of the jazz band, girls' choir and marching band at her school. Help Jessica keep her schedule straight by figuring out the activity she has planned for each day of the week and writing it in the grid at the bottom of the page.

1. Jessica's piano lesson is two days before her trumpet lesson.
2. Each week, the marching band has a show during half-time at the football game on Friday.
3. Neither choir rehearsal nor jazz band rehearsal are held on Tuesdays.
4. Piano lessons are not given the first or last day of the week.
5. Jessica really looks forward to her jazz band rehearsal because it is right in the middle of the week.
6. Her trumpet lessons are scheduled three days after choir rehearsal.

Fiddler on the Roof

Fiddler on the Roof is a musical by Jerry Bock, Sheldon Harnick and Joseph Stein that was first performed on Broadway in 1964.

This musical was based on the story Tevye and His Daughters by Sholem Aleichem. The story was about the milkman Tevye and his Jewish family living in Russia in 1905.

Fiddler on the Roof was made into a movie in 1971. It won 3 Academy Awards.
