The musical score is written for piano in 4/4 time. It consists of four systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the left hand and a more melodic line in the right hand. The tempo is marked 'Expressively, very freely' with a quarter note equal to 69-72 beats per minute. The score begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The key signature has one flat (B-flat major or D minor). The first system starts with a whole rest in the vocal line. The second system begins with a measure rest in the vocal line. The third system starts with a measure rest in the vocal line. The fourth system begins with a measure rest in the vocal line. The piano accompaniment continues throughout.
