A Word from the Writers

When Mary and I started talking about putting this work together, she suggested the title LOVE MADE A WAY and I was immediately on board. God’s love through Jesus Christ is the heart of Christmas and we knew this was the message we wanted to share this year. You’ll find a little bit of everything in this work, new songs, familiar carols, fresh settings of timeless Christmas favorites and ministry songs that will reach the heart of every listener.

Rose Aspinall has created the narrations for this work and I asked her what this title means to her...I love her response:

Love made a way! We don’t know why—not really. Who could understand a love like that? We do know it was God’s decision and man’s. We could not—not would we have, made a way back to Him. It was God Himself Who said, no cost is too high. From the foundation of the earth, He decided, I will come for them.

This rescue was beyond reason—beyond human reason, that is. But thankfully for us, God does not reason like men. Jesus came and when He did, the word says, He was a fragrant offering. So, just breathe. Breathe Him in. Accept that you are loved so much by your Creator—that Love made a way!

That’s our heart as we present this work. Wherever you find yourself this Christmas, He sees you and He knows exactly what you’re feeling...lost Him.

Love Made a Way.
