With quiet strength $\frac{\text{d}}{\text{m}} = \text{ca. 72}$

poco rit.

unis. $\frac{\text{mp}}{\text{s}}$

gentle, warm sound

a tempo

She’s some-where in the sun-light strong, Her tears are in the fall-ing rain, She calls me in the wind’s soft song, And with the flow’rs she comes a-gain.

Duration: approx. 2:45
Soprano I and II

The loneliness and misery Are silenced by a melody.

Alto

The loneliness and misery Are silenced by a melody.

Poco rit. 20

With renewed confidence.

With renewed confidence.

Words in time-less memory: "Stay the course, light a star, Change the Antares — a bright red, giant star in the constellation Scorpius.
ger, And ev’ry sun and moon her stay.

gger, And ev’ry sun and moon her stay.

Dark voice-es from the shad-ows call, But lis-ten, and her voice re-

Ah

resonant, warm sound a tempo

call — Mo - ri - - ah,* Mo - ri - -

rit. mf a tempo

call — Mo - ri - - ah,* Mo - ri - -

rit. mf a tempo

rit. mf a tempo

*Moriah — a colloquial name for a wind.

15/1376H-6
ah! “Stay the course, light a star, change the world where’er you are.”

Mo - ri - - -

She’s some-where and I

She’s some-where and I

Slower, expansive